

We are here for you...

The San Joaquin County Family Justice Center is a one-stop service center that provides comprehensive support to those that have experienced:

Domestic Violence	Human Trafficking
Sexual Assault	Stalking
Child Abuse	Elder Abuse

You are not required to make a crime report in order to access our services.

Those who find the courage to walk through our doors will find us here ready to assist you and your children.

...together under one roof.

Meet Nala!

FJC Facility Dog

Nala is our sweet yellow lab who serves as our facility dog and is here at the Family Justice Center to greet you and offer you support. Let us know if you would like to meet her.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I park?

F Lot is a public parking lot run by LAZ Parking and located at 369 East Market. Our office is able to validate parking for this lot while you are receiving services from the FJC.

Can I bring my kids with me?

Yes. Our office has a play area for kids if you are coming in for a quick visit. For more lengthy visits, we are able to arrange for free on-site childcare courtesy of our partnership with Child Abuse Prevention Council. Please contact our office at 209.468.2600 to schedule.

How much do your services cost?

Thanks to grant funding and private donors, there is no cost for any services or resources provided by the Family Justice Center or our partners.
