Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I park?

There are two parking garages close to our building, the first being Ed Coy Garage at 130 N Hunter Street, and SEB at 15 N El Dorado Street. We are able to validate for these garages while you are receiving services.

Can I bring my kids with me?

Yes. Our office has a play area for kids if you are coming in for a quick visit. For more lengthy visits, we are able to arrange for free on-site childcare courtesy of our partnership with Child Abuse Prevention Council. Please contact our office to schedule.

How much do your services cost?

Thanks to grant funding and private donors, there is no cost for any services or resources provided by the Family Justice Center or our partners.
